15		5									This report is very late. The work has been piling up and they has been little time to take care of book work the summer is brief here and one must take advantage of it while it last. We have been making physical improvements on the property and the team of the Kelon falls on me. — Summer camps are in full swing and as I have my American Red Cross life saving certificate I have been in action every day for the last month. — To top it all off my car broke down and I am the mechanic so that takes time too. But aside from all that we have managed to keep the church going along fine and there is encouraging progress in all the phases of the church work. V. I. A.

REMARKS

I showed my Kodachrome pictures of St. Lawrence Island & the folks enjoyed them. Two of the women helped me to wrap little gifts for every one in the village over three years old. While in Gambell, Percy Ipsook & I agreed to clean out the left-over things in the mission attic and give them at Christmas time. Now our cupboards are bare, but we had a jolly Christmas with the simple little gifts we found. Would it be too much to expect mission boxes on the first boat next summer? In spite of the war? Things like towels & wash cloths, remnants of cloth, memorandum books, pencils, outlet, needles, New Testaments and religious pictures are useful and yet not too much in the luxury class for war areas.

Okpa nurse left for Gambell, Dec. 2 as we had an influenza epidemic the next week. There were three funerals this month and two births. I had the task of administering a hypodermic injection of pituitrin to a mother early one Sunday morning when her new baby arrived!

Week day Bible classes in the government school started, one for [illegible] girls. We [illegible] to [illegible]

15	Savoonga	3									The outstanding event this month was the World Day of Prayer meeting. We had to simplify the printed program, considerably, but we followed the general idea as closely as possible. The Jr. C.C. had charge of one section, the women of another, and five men who serve as interpreters had the third part. The collection amounted to $100.00 and 153 people attended in spite of a very cold, stormy day.

I let one come to our C.E. meeting one evening to prove how crowded we were and therefore unable to let them join the young people's group. Not wanting a third C.E. group myself, I suggested a C.M.C., or Christian Mothers Class. They have classes somewhat like C.E. & meet at the same time they met before as SS.

This quarter we studied the book of Luke, starting this epistle just before Christmas. Then we we had about three lessons on the book of James and one on Jude. Now we are studying Paul's letter to the Romans. An interpreter goes over the lesson carefully two or three times in the Saturday study period. For prayer meeting we have studied the minor prophets, - a pretty stiff course for them, but one idea is emphasized

15											The D. S. Sutherland arrived July 4th, We had started the activities of the day with prayer and the singing of patriotic hymns. Our singing was really well done, in all four parts, until we came to the last number: The Star Spangled Banner. About then the freighter appeared in sight so we really had a pretty good excuse (if one is needed at all for spoiling an otherwise worshipful service by erratic sounds.

At first I tried having them alone, but was afraid they were not understanding the lessons altogether. Thanks to Elinor, I feel these children know pretty well what it means to be a Christian & a Church member. Seven out of the fourteen expressed a desire to be true Christians. They are rather young, only 12 years, but I hope & pray they are sincere.

15	Nenana, Alaska	25							2		This report shows the closing of the Communicant Class work and the beginning of vacation Bible School. Seven members of the Communicant Class formally declared their intentions to give their best to their Master and to join the Church on the opportunity Sunday. The other seven members of the class want to join the Church, but they are not so faithful in attendance & should wait until they understand more about what it all means.

1. Sermons Preached	Davoonga	one	one	one	one	one	5	The first two weeks in August show rather poor attendance due to the fact that many villagers went to the reindeer corral. As a matter of fact, Davoonga was practically deserted for five days & I read myself, on Aug. 10, but minded seeing the window as the last were just trailing over the mountains when I got there. Camp was fine this year. Vacation Bible School is limited to Mon., Tue. & Wed. One day we had down entirely but average attendance this week is about 36, so far.
